Use this knowledge to equip and empower yourself so you know how to respond when the IRS comes calling.

SECRET #1

DON'T PAY IRS PENALTIES

SECRET #1

DON'T PAY IRS PENALTIES

The IRS has almost 150 different types of penalties they can hit you with. The worst part is the IRS can also charge interest and additional penalties on the “original” penalty.

Penalties can be such a high percentage of the total amount owed to the IRS; it usually makes sense to consider requesting that the IRS reduce all penalties to ZERO before you pay the IRS. But if you’ve already paid the bill, it can’t hurt to ask for a penalty abatement and refund.

Contrary to public perception, IRS penalties can often be reduced to ZERO if you have REASONABLE CAUSE. What comprises reasonable cause you may ask? Well, in our experience with negotiating with the IRS, anything may qualify as long as it’s reasonable and it happened at the “time of noncompliance.”

We’ve seen the IRS abate penalties for bad accountants, medical expenses, ignorance of the ridiculously complex tax laws, ex-spouses, helping provide care for a loved one, military call-ups, fires, natural disasters, substance abuse, death, and even re relying on IRS advice.

SECRET # 2

FILE ALL LEGALLY REQUIRED TAX RETURNS ON TIME

FILE ALL LEGALLY REQUIRED TAX RETURNS ON TIME

So many people don't realize that the IRS charges a penalty of up to 25% just for filing your tax return late. That's right, you'll get hit with an additional 25% of what you owe if you miss the deadline for filing individual tax returns, payroll tax returns, or corporate tax returns.

We've seen so many people who could have saved THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS on penalties if they just knew this one thing. In the future, no matter what is going on in your life, file all tax returns on time even if you don't send in the money you owe with the return.

Yes, of course, you'll get an ugly letter from the IRS for not sending them the money you owe, but so what? You will avoid a 25% penalty!

And by the way, do you think they hold themselves to any such requirements when they don't process your return timely or get you your refund timely? Of course not, they're not subject to any penalties or interest. Talk about not being fair...

SECRET #3

YOU DON'T HAVE TO LIVE IN FEAR OF THE IRS

SECRET #3

YOU DON'T HAVE TO LIVE IN FEAR OF THE IRS

Knowing your rights as a taxpayer gives you leverage when resolving your IRS problems. Yet so many taxpayers know that they have rights when it comes to facing the IRS. Instead of feeling powerless when up against potentially crushing back taxes and IRS penalties, knowing your rights as a taxpayer or having a qualified and experienced accountant or attorney on your side is the best way to understand all the options available to you for permanently solving your tax troubles.

We know that IRS tax problems can cause an immense amount of fear and anxiety. Let's face it; dealing with the IRS is stressful. But we take away that fear and stress by knowing the Internal Revenue Service inside and out. We authored portions of the Internal Revenue Manual, the IRS unofficial guidebook. We know their procedures and practices better than they do. Our mission, and our passion is to provide tax help to those who feel hopeless against an over aggressive IRS.

We love nothing more than negotiating the lowest possible IRS payment amount allowed by law for our clients and helping them move on with their lives. Did you know that our average client has over 5 years of unfiled tax returns? While that's not ideal and it's certainly daunting, it's solvable. Our experience has told us that there's a solution to every problem.

We've saved so many people from financial crisis and have helped them to turn their lives around so they can sleep better at night and begin planning for and dreaming about their future once again. If you have IRS problems, you owe it to yourself and your loved ones to get help today!

SECRET #4

YOU DON'T HAVE TO TALK TO THE IRS AGENT

SECRET #4

YOU DON'T HAVE TO TALK TO THE IRS AGENT

To be frank, talking to the IRS yourself is the very worst thing you can do. IRS agents are very well trained to put you at ease and get you talking, all the while building their case against you.

The taxpayer Bill of Rights specifically allows you to be represented by a qualified practitioner who can answer questions for you and provide documentation to the IRS. So many taxpayers attempt to handle their own audit or hire the person who prepared their tax return to handle the IRS for them.

The reason this usually does not work is because most tax return preparers don't handle IRS audits on a daily basis. The IRS can easily intimidate them and trip them up, which usually results in an unfavorable outcome.

You see, when the IRS talks to you, they are very well trained to get information from you. They're building a case on you with your answers and they're using your answers to provide the basis for hitting you with penalties. Not to mention, the IRS usually audits several years in the past, and who can remember exactly what they did several years ago? Well, the IRS does, and they already know the answers to the questions they're asking you. If you answer wrong, they will use it against you.

Don't make the mistake of talking to the IRS. You don't have to, and talking to them during an audit usually proves to be very costly for taxpayers.

SECRET #5

YOU CAN BEAT THE ODDS
WHEN FACING AN IRS AUDIT

SECRET #5

YOU CAN BEAT THE ODDS WHEN FACING AN IRS AUDIT

When it comes to tax audits, the IRS wins greater than 80% of the time. Taxpayers are deemed guilty until proven innocent, which means the IRS can start an audit by disallowing every deduction you made on a return until each one is proven to be legitimate. Talk about un-American.

If a taxing authority has decided to audit you, it's important that you don't let yourself get pushed around by them. Also note, if you don't file your taxes, the IRS has the authority to do so, and they often will file them for you.

Having someone represent you for an audit vastly improves your chances for a successful tax resolution. Treat an IRS audit as seriously as you would open heart surgery. Would you want a general practitioner performing open-heart surgery on you? Of course not! That's why it's imperative that you have an accountant who specializes in dealing with the IRS to represent you when you have to deal with the IRS.

SECRET #6

IRS AUDITS CAN BE RESOLVED QUICKLY

SECRET #6

IRS AUDITS CAN BE RESOLVED QUICKLY

The best way to end an IRS AUDIT with a great outcome is to end it at the first meeting.

Whenever we represent clients in IRS audits, we actually perform a trial audit in our office before we ever meet with the IRS. This allows us to know which areas need more documentation or answers. When we do meet with the IRS (most of the time without our client), we can quickly answer their questions, provide documents and get to the bottom line.

We always meet the IRS at their office or at ours, but NEVER at our client's.

And if you do receive an IRS audit letter in the mail asking you to come in or to call for an appointment - remember back to Secret # 4: You Don't Have to Talk to the IRS Agent.

SECRET #7

THE IRS CUTS DEALS

SECRET #7

THE IRS CUTS DEALS

The IRS does make deals on taxes owing, including all penalties and interest. The requirements are rigid, but if you do qualify, the results are incredible.

To qualify for a deal with the IRS, I would suggest that you owe the IRS at least $20,000 and have very little in the way of equity in your assets. Also, you must be using your monthly income to pay your necessary living expenses and not have much or only a small amount left over to pay old taxes.

The IRS cuts these deals in order to get you back into their system as a current taxpayer and to collect a few bucks on the old taxes owed. The fine print in these deals requires you to file your tax returns and pay on time for the next 5 years. If you don't, then the IRS revokes the deal and bills you for the original amount. That's why, if you do make a deal, you need to take extra care to ensure that you stay current going forward. We have a system in place that can help you do exactly that.
